Hey, how 'bout 'em Titans? Yeah, I know, they lost a heart breaker in the Super Bowl, but they still had a great season. So congrats to the 1999/2000 Tennessee Titans for a fun year of football. Now on to business.

This is part 2 of my salute to the E-bodies. Last month we focused on the Plymouth side of the coin. So now I bring you Dodge's sister car to the Barracuda, the Challenger.

Unlike the 'Cudas the Challenger was never offered in the A-body breed. Dodge to stay with the Dart as their smaller hot rod and instead went forward with the Charger project (thank you very much). So by 1970, when the E-body was born, they came out with a new car all together to go along with the Barracuda.

Although the two E-bodies look very similar, they are very different. The Challenger is actually a little wider and longer than the 'Cuda. Also neither one share the same sheet metal. So, although they are based on the same platform, they are really quite different.

Like the 'Cuda, it also had it's own design distinctions and packages. It was offered in the S/E package for style and comfort. Also available was the R/T version for the more performance-oriented buyer. If you wanted the best of both worlds you could get the R/T-S/E.

The body stayed the same from '70 to '74 but the horsepower did not. The Challenger suffered the same fate as the 'Cuda in 1972. The 340 was as good as it got with the 360 by 1974. But before that the sky was the limit, from the 225 six to the 426 elephant motor.

The last car to carry the Challenger badge the Japan built version from 1978 to 1982. Can you say "blasphemy"? It's kinda like that whole K-car / Omni / Charger thing from the '80's, but that's another story.

Well I hope you enjoyed this little series. If you'd like more info on these cars, get the 'Cuda and Challenger Musclicar color history book by Paul Zazarine at places like Books-A-Million. C-ya next month!

I am very excited about taking on the position of president. I would also like to thank all previous officers & members for keeping our club going for 10 years. I am looking forward to a great year of show's and socializing with everyone.

At the January meeting suggestion and discussion was about our September car show. Intermingling with other clubs for cruises, tours and other social gatherings was also an idea tossed around. Negotiations are under way with Hooter's to sell concessions @ our show. We will be selling can drinks so we will need volunteers to help sell drinks.

Music City Dodge is interested in hosting a monthly meeting at their location after they finish remodeling there facility. Jasper engines and transmissions is interested on board as a sponsor at our show.

The February meeting will be at Longhorn Steakhouse on Lebanon Road in Hermitage. The address is 4774 Lebanon Road across from Walgreen's drug store, just before you get to the Wilson County line. From Nashville, exit I-40 at Old Hickory Blvd (exit 221) go north and turn right onto Andrew Jackson Parkway. Stay on the highway until you come to Lebanon Road. Turn right onto Lebanon Road. Longhorn will be on the left, just pass McDonald's. They have a private room for us to use and the food is great. If you would like to go somewhere different please come to the meeting and make a suggestion for a new meeting place. We will vote on the suggestion and go where the majority rules. The bench racing and face stuffing will begin at 12:30 and the official meeting starts at 2:00pm. The date is Sunday, February 27, 2000. It is an official meeting, as we will be voting on the by-laws for 2000. Please read the enclosed copy and if you have any changes please come to the meeting and propose them.

Enclosed you will find your membership cards for the year 2000. Just as a reminder the 2000 membership dues are past due. If you did not renew please do so, as we cannot continue to exist without you as a member.

The meeting will be on Sunday, February 27, 2000 at Longhorn Steakhouse in Hermitage at 2:00pm. Also, we will give away two door prizes ($25) cash, and (2) tickets to Hunters Auto Expo in March 10-12, you must be present to win. See you there!
