

EXHAUST NOTES

SILVER ANNIVERSARY WEEKENDS:

A BRIEF RECAP

"KRUZIN' AT THE CRUISE-IN"

09-26-14: The Friday night Cruise-In was the most successful to date thanks to the excellent Cajun feast prepared by Paul Reynolds and other Club Members from the Big Easy Mopar Club. After the Cruise, led by VP Mike Wilkins to the Snow White Drive In, several participants returned to watch "Snake and Mongoose" on the big screen TV in the pavilion.

MeMe's Country Cookin and our Dealer sponsor, Nashville CDJR also helped to make our 3rd Annual Cruise In possible.

"25TH ANNIVERSARY CAR & TRUCK SHOW"

09-27-14: The 25th Annual All Mopar Car & Truck Show was the best attended that our Club has hosted at the Wilson County Fairgrounds. Mike Wilkins started the day by singing the "Star Spangled Banner" Special Guest and Grand Marshall, Forrest Pitcock, autographed so many posters and T-Shirts that he ran out of ink.

There were 179 show entries and the vendor area was filled with everything from chocolate and hand lotion to parts, wheels and cars for sale. Mopar Collector's Guide was on site with free T-Shirts for those who subscribed and Tim Costello was available for taking pictures.

A few pictures are shown here. Check out the Music City Mopar Club's website and Facebook for more photos.

The Club donated it's half of the 50/50 drawing to "Magdalene - Thistle Farms" and thanks to the generosity of Jo Lippard, holder of the winning 50/50 ticket and the efforts of Steve Yeldell with donations from spectators the charity received a nice donation. Rita and Jordan, representatives of Thistle Farms, expressed their sincere gratitude during the Awards Ceremony.

Rita and Jordan displayed and sold Thistle Farms Products; all proceeds support Magdalene.

One of the Music City Mopar Club original founding fathers, Pat McVay, was honored during the Awards Ceremony for his efforts during the early years and continuous support over the last 25 years. Several of the current members who joined during the first year of the Club's existence received recognition and a coffee mug.

A list of the winners in all Show Classes will be included in a separate publication, possibly next month's Newsletter.

CELEBRATION CAR & TRUCK SHOW

09-28-14: On Sunday the Music City Mopar Club held its first 25~50~100 Open Show to celebrate 25 years of the 1989 model year vehicles, 50 years of the Ford Mustang, 50 years of the 426 Hemi and 100 years of the Dodge brand. Participants voted for the cars and trucks in each category and trophies were awarded that afternoon.

At 3:00, the winning raffle ticket was drawn for the "Big Screen HD TV"; the winner was present and says he will return next year.

And the Winner is.....
